New Zealand is to start a chain of national reserve banks. Their chief purpose will be to restore monetary equilibrium and to stabilize the New Zealanders propose to make their money work for them, not against them. In Canada we shape our money to suit Wall Street.
Naturally, it is a little difficult to get the benefit, while we stand the loss.

METHODS, NOT MOTIVES

A correspondent wants to know what government has been giving the public. The answer is "shorten the working day and provide universal employment without lightening the pay envelope."
He implies that in his opinion no government has been doing this. The Bulletin agrees with that view. It assumes that every government in the civilized world has been doing so, and fully believes that.

Governments are composed neither of fools nor of fools. They make mistakes in policy and administration, just as does the man on the street.
But they are animated by just as sincere desire to prevent hardship and promote the general welfare as is the average citizen.

No government that is not altogether foolish or stupid enough to allow itself to be led through the last three years without seeing that a redistribution of employment that would increase the aggregate paying power would be a blessing to the people neglected to ponder methods by which that might be brought about.

The Bulletin has only a moderately high estimate of the wisdom, efficiency and enlightenment of the present Dominion Government. But it has not a shadow of doubt that Mr. Bennett would set every person in Canada to work, building at exorbitant rates of wages if he knew how to do it.

It will be time to assume the contrary when some one has shown practical measures by which that pleasant dream can be made real. Meanwhile accusing those in authority of indifference to human need gets nowhere.

ANOTHER POOL IN TROUBLE

The Alberta Live Stock Pool is less fortunate than the Wheat Pool, in appearance at least. It has gone into bankruptcy, while the Wheat Pool is still carrying on.

The province appears as creditor only to the amount of $22,000, for which the taxpayers will be due to pay.

Perhaps that explains why the enterprise got into trouble. If it had been backed more generally it might have succeeded. Or perhaps it would only have foundered further and faster.

The "Wheat Pool" lost over $12,000, but was saved from liquidation, re-financed by the province, and is now doing business on a large scale, with the backing of the government.

The interesting question arises whether history will repeat. Is the Live Stock Pool to be re-organized, re-financed, and started in business again, as was done for the Wheat Pool? Will the live stock men be told they must run their own marketing agency, if they want one, while the province and the Dominion support the agency of the wheat growers?

Logically, any and every important producing industry in the province is entitled to assistance in proportion to its value. But the fact is that the practical fact is the province has a debt of $12,000, and cannot afford to go on backing trading enterprises again and again.

No further commitments in relation to pools of any kind should be made until the legislature meets and studies the whole question in the light of past history and our heavily indebted provincial credit.

THE CHRISTMAS TURKEY

The turkey is always an interesting bird as Christmas approaches. This year he is interesting on a new way, for the reason that he is making new records in cheapness.

Not to be outdone by other kinds of farm products, and perhaps to show that labor-saving machinery hasn't everything to do with it, the turkeys have turned up this fall in surplus numbers.
The town is full of them, and seemingly the country is full of them.

The result is so selling. The price has gone down.
Prime birds are selling at ten cents a pound or one in the dozen. Light ones have been sold over the counter in Edmonton at two for a dollar. One is reported, from farmer to consumer, at the rate of 30 cents for a ten-pounder.

Time of course are ridiculous prices. The farmers cannot be making any money out of the turkey end of the business.

a price saving that spells tragedy to the man who sells the turkey in the one case and to the man who buys the turkey in the other. Somewhere between there must be a point where the consumer would be paying what he could reasonably afford to pay and the producer would be getting what he could reasonably afford to sell for.

The turkey, swooped down from the almost unreachable altitude of former years to thrust itself upon the consumer for a price, is an emblematic of what has happened to farm products generally. His downward flight explains why the farm population in Alberta is in financial trouble, and suggests what has to be done if security and tolerance stability is to be given to the basic industry of this province.

Somewhere, by regulation of money or how you will, machinery will have to be provided to maintain something more like an even balance between the producer and the consumer. Both of them are now at the mercy of chance. A shortage brings hardship to the one. A surplus brings ruin to the other. Prices swing up and down like the waves of the sea, in obedience to unregulated supply and demand.

But even the movement of waves may be modified, by pouring oil on the water. The public utility authority should be able to exert some corresponding influence upon surges and slumps of our unregulated commodity prices.

Poems That Live

IN THE DARK

All moorland stands the ancient cedar-trees
Along the bridle paths where they grow;
And from the dark west comes a wandering breeze,
And voices them to and fro.

A murky darkness lies along the sand,
Where bright the sunbeams of the morning shone.
And the eye rarely seeks, by sea and land,
Some light to rest upon.

No large, pale star its glimmering light keeps;
No twinkling star, no gleam of light,
And the dark rider, like a serpent, creeps
To where its black peers lie.

Strange tally rods through the darkness steal,
And through the dark, the ocean-thunder rolls,
To where its black peers lie, still, still, I feel
Its weight upon my soul.

I stretch my hands out in the empty air,
I strain my eyes into the empty night;
Blackness and darkness—Father, hear my prayer,
Grant me to see the light!

Red Deer Valley Coal Field Making Record

BIG SHIPMENT BEING ROUTED OVER PRAIRIES

Exports to U.S. Points From Crown's Nest Well Maintained

CALGARY, Dec. 12.—Increased production in the Red Deer Valley is sending close to 600 cars of coal to U.S. points in Saskatchewan, Manitoba and Ontario today.

In the Crown's Nest field in the southwestern section of the province, exports to the north-western United States market was being well maintained, with some daily exports showing increases.

Largest increase was reflected in Red Deer Valley field where Saturday's shipments totaled 390 cars, carrying between 14,000 and 15,000 tons of domestic coal. Final figure last night showed.

Previous record was set in December, 1924, when 374 cars were loaded in one day.

Most of the record export through Thunderbay was enroute to Saskatchewan and Manitoba points. Trains were consigned to Ontario and a few went to British Columbia points.

Increased winter activity started to develop in the Red Deer Valley field about the middle of October but a slackening off occurred until the recent cold spell which sent shippers upward.

Alberta government figures issued last night showed production from all mines in the province for the week ending 12th of the calendar year totaled 2,388,975 tons compared with 2,438,000 tons for the same period last year, an increase of 304,074 tons.

STAR GAZING

CLAIRE MAYNARD

Though most Canadian film exports set for Hollywood, Claire Maynard will reverse the procedure and come to Canada to play the star role in a picture of the Paris French regime in Canada, to be produced by British Canadian Film.

By BOB MESTAY
One of those periodic freaks of show business is the phenomenal success which has been attending the revival of "The End of the Road," a motion picture which, shown under the auspices of the Canadian Social Hygiene Council, has been breaking box-office records throughout Canada and particularly in Ontario. It should be remembered that approximately 60,000 people saw this film during its last run at Massey Hall, Toronto, when mounted police reserves had to be called out to handle the huge crowds which sought admission and stretched for blocks in the vicinity of a house which seats 3,000 people.

About a fortnight ago, the ban on "The End of the Road" was lifted by the Quebec board of censors. Already the picture has been booked into so many Quebec theatres that it will have uninterrupted run in that province well into June, and deeply impressed are managers with the picture in the sister province. "The End of the Road" deals with the reaction which follows youthful indiscretions but, despite the "educational" angle which colors this picture, it is bringing out people who rarely attend the theatre. One of the aims of the Canadian Social Hygiene Council is to

TWO CHICAGO COPS SLAIN IN NIGHT AFFAIRS

Deaths Occur Just After Mayor Orders City Clean-up

CHICAGO, Dec. 12.—Three policemen were shot to death last night in two separate shootings, although one in Chicago and the other in suburban Berwyn.

The victims, Policemen Frank Svec and Edgar Chatterton, both of Berwyn, and Policeman Albert G. Magon of the Chicago force.

Berwyn officials said Svec and Chatterton were slain when they went to serve a tramping warrant on Arthur Lavoie, 40, at his home. Lavoie was arrested after the shooting.

Magon was killed, police were told, when he interfered as two alcohol peddlers were threatening the life of Harry Mass, unless the latter bought him alcohol from them.

CERNAK GIVES ORDER
Just a few hours before Mayor Ansel J. Cernak had ordered the police department to "clean up or quit—the gangster or else get out."

The mayor called every one of Chicago's police captains to his office and personally delivered the order. "Clean up or quit," he said, "and I will hang out all banners for gangsters, he said, must go."

MIKE CILIAN
The chief reason for the drive against crime he gave as: "Chicago must clean up to be ready for legal."

"When he returns, the large crowd will be packed on trial and all eyes will be focused upon them," Cernak said.

"Unless we show that our house is in order and can be kept in order we will have a harder job repeating the 18th amendment."

DELHI, India, Dec. 12.—Four policemen were reported killed yesterday in a riot in Daula, a village in the state of Assam, which resulted from attempts to collect revenue.

For nearly 50 years Paul rode a bicycle, but 16 years ago he bought a motorcycle and has ridden motorcycles ever since. AMUSEMENTS

"Speed Demon," the Columbia picture featuring William Collier, Jr., and Joan Marsh, is a real old-fashioned melodrama brought up-to-the-minute melodrama, with run running, crooked racing drivers, a real kidnapping, a desperate fight about a car, a suspenseful and thrilling outboard racing scenes all figuring in this picture.

In addition to this exciting feature there is a new and real comedy "Bon Voyage," a novelty picture in which a man and a woman are the stars.

DREAMLAND

A three-time role made Claudette Colbert a star.

Miss Colbert, featured with George M. Cohan and Jimmy Durante in "The Phantom President," is the latest movie stardom, in a few brief moments.

After she came to France, she came to America, but still very young, her parents decided to settle in New York City. She studied art, with the object of making it a career, but when she was offered a chance to take a small part in a play, she accepted eagerly.

CAPTAIN

Weird calumnies, unusual Oriental torture chambers, spectacular film pictures, a mysterious destiny, a robot burrowing artificial lightning—these are just a few of the thrills that make the presentation of "The Mask of Fu Manchu," a production of Sam Rastbury's famous story which will open Wednesday.

With Karl LaRocca as the sinister Dr. Fu Manchu, the picture is intended frankly as the super-thriller of the season.

The story deals with the attempt of Fu Manchu to use the legend of the Great Khan, claim to be his reincarnation and achieve, through the aid of his wife, the world domination.

In this his wife is aided against those of a Scotland Yard detective who eventually win out.

MONTREAL, Dec. 12.—In order to discuss plans for the fullest possible co-operation between the Canadian Pacific Railway and the Canadian National Railways, the executive officers of the C.P.R. and C.N.R. met today at a joint meeting here.

Announcement of the meeting was made jointly by E. W. Beatty, president of the C.P.R., and J. H. Hufferd, acting C.N.R. president. The statement followed:

"The executive officers of the Canadian Pacific Railway and the Canadian National Railways, with the approval of their respective boards of directors, have met and co-operated to a certain extent in effecting economies in operation and in other ways where uniform action appeared desirable.

"Being met because of the necessity for the utmost economy in the operation of the railways, the co-operation should be carried forward to the fullest possible extent, the executive committee of the respective boards of directors of the two railways have decided to appoint a joint committee to formulate plans for carrying out the economies."

NEWS

—BILL LEWIS—

Obviously our good friend Kenna, front-runner Doc, wasn't trying to fool anyone when he said he would get Edmondson a hockey team the fans would enjoy watching, following the setback his Eskimos suffered in Calgary last Friday. That defeat didn't ride very well with his Green and he said he'd get the necessary players for a winning club. And he meant it.

He made a slicker with Lloyd Turner for the hard-hitting Billy Belash, who would play with Calgary Tigers. That completed his regular defence line. At Kenna's Kenna, his other defence man, will be ready for all future duty.

Then he started looking for trouble last night and yesterday he was successful in securing "Hot" Gibson, forward star of the Dutch in the American League.

Acquisition of Redpath and Gibson, together with the recovery from illness of Kenna and the possibility of another forward coming, will make a great defence line. That Edmondson team when they take on Regina Caps here this coming Saturday, from the squad that were the green and white in the two games against Calgary last week.

That team, with these additions, will be able to give Kenna's Regina Caps a real fight, they should not forget in a hurry.

Roger Jenkins, one of Edmondson's star amateur players, was in Chicago last week, writing interestingly to John Dwyer and reports on many of the local boys in the East. He states that John Cullen, forward star of the International League with London, Tennessee, is going great guns with Detroit Red Wings. That "Red" should look like a real find for the season out with his broken leg and should have a real time in Art Wiles is considered the "find" of the season at St. Louis and the fact that he is playing smart, head-up hockey for the Black Hawks. All of which will be pleasing tidings to Edmondson followers of the ice players.

Incidentally, the Ralph himself back in action after being out with an injured knee, and though he is still heavily taped, he should be "on" in a short time.

Speaking of Chicago, last Sunday's edition of the Herald Examiner carries a story of interest to Edmondson basketball fans. It is the story of the signing of the May and Malone team and the former team, the Hawks, under the name of St. Point-Cards and that the team is pointing towards a world championship series against the Commercial Club.

Many players who have performed here in the past are included on the roster of the new team, among them being Frank and Violet Kraback, Marge and Bruce Shaper.

EDMONTON HOCKEY

American League Forward Signs With Eskimos Monday

DULUTH STAR IS SECURED FOR LOCAL SQUAD

"Hot" Gibson Acquisition to Front Line To Be Here Wednesday

Acquisition of the second new player in two days to strengthen the Eskimos hockey team is preparation of the visit here Saturday of Kenna McKenna's Regina Caps was announced last night by Gordon B. "Duke" Kenna, manager of the local club.

Following close on the announcement that he had secured Odo Redpath, former Coast defenseman, was the information yesterday that he had been successful in signing "Hot" Gibson, star forward of Duluth in the American League who did not report to that club this season.

These two men will add a great deal of strength to his team for the important game with Regina this weekend.

Two on way today

The new forward, who is at present in his home in Wisconsin, will leave this afternoon for the city and will arrive here tomorrow morning in time for the regular daily practice, along with Kenna's left wingman, Art Wiles.

Gibson has played both at centre and on right wing and is expected to play wherever he is needed.

He played grand hockey with the Duluth team and was one of the prominent forwards of the American League during his period.

Difficulties with the club management is said to be the reason for his not returning to the Hornets.

MUCH STRONGER

Acquisition of two players, and the return to action of Kenna McKenna's Regina Caps, will give the team a real time in the opinion of Kenna.

He said that he will have a first-rate starting defence for the first time this year and a satisfactory defence.

Inability to make a satisfactory defence has plagued the first line before the season opened.

From getting the defence he needed, and then Kenna was laid low with the flu to take the only line that he had.

M'LARNIN TO FACE FULLER FRIDAY NIGHT

Vancouver's Ring Pride Garden Headline This Week

NEW YORK, Dec. 13.—Last week was Winnipeg's Frankie Battaglia who brought joy to the hearts of a New York fight following that champion a boy who can give and take it. This week it's Vancouver's highly-popular Mr. Jimmy McLarnin.

McLarnin returns to the Madison Square Garden battle pit Friday night to face a wild man, the one of the best fighters in the world, and a smiling Vancouver countess, who is the favorite of the regular daily practice, along with Kenna's left wingman, Art Wiles.

McLarnin has played both at centre and on right wing and is expected to play wherever he is needed.

LEAGUE LEAD AT STAKE FOR OILER SQUAD

Imperial Has Chance in Game Against Varsity This Evening

Leadership of the Senior Amateur Hockey League championship race will be the goal at which Bill Powers' Imperials will aim tonight when they clash with the Green and gold University of Alberta squad at Varsity rink tonight, starting at 8:30 o'clock.

At present, the Oilers are deadlocked with Greenleafs for the top berth but they can assume undisputed leadership by gaining either a win or a tie in this evening.

After taking a 3-4 setback in the opening game of the season against the Imperials, the Oilers found to their surprise that they were not so easily defeated.

WINNIPEG, Dec. 12.—Step-up selling and a market at Liverpool weakened by pressure of Argentine elevator sales, but the slack in wheat prices here today and all futures hit new all-time lows. December closing at 40 1/2 for the year. Very little volume was available. From a very close range 1 1/2 to 1 3/4 lower December closed at 40 1/2, May at 40 1/2 and July at 40 1/2.

Wheat was evident early when cable from Liverpool indicated heavy pressure from Argentine shippers offering freely at sharply-reduced prices. At December closing, the low of 40 1/2, and with only a slight rally, continued to slip to a close of 40 1/2, and also represented the value of No. 1 northern wheat in store at the head of the lake.

Some step-up selling caused the market to dip once the close but around 4 1/2, for the May future stopped the downward movement and the decline halted. Export business was apparently restricted to moderate amounts taken at Vancouver.

Meanwhile there was evidence of good selling from the elevator in excess of the deliveries made in country elevators. This suggested farmers are getting what they can for wheat they already have in the hands. The improvement was due to the demand for cash wheat and export grain, and to usual only crop traded.

SEE WINDOW DISPLAY

Tailored in Plain Fabrics in Collar-Attached Style or With Two Separate Collars

Beginning Wednesday, men can buy these high-grade shirts at a figure that doesn't begin to do their make and quality justice. And as a gift suggestion they're away above par.

Months ago we bought cotton yarns when the market was at low ebb. English mills wove, finished, bleached and dyed it for us and EATON factories tailored the shirts to our own rigid specifications assuring perfect fitting collars, roomy sleeves and generous length.

Shirts are a beautiful lustrous quality, durable, white and colored in blue, tan and white. It's a quality that will launder exceptionally well.

Collar-attached style—with medium point stayed collars and a breast pocket. Matching collar style with pre-shrunk neckbands and French double cuffs.

Sizes 14 to 17 in various sleeve lengths. Every shirt cellophane wrapped.
